

Votes cast in rural districts & urban districts have become as predictable as the terms conservative & liberal. The country appears bitterly & almost equally divided on religious, social, & economic decisions. Voters are increasingly manipulated by social media & dark money.

We need a new system.

Stephen a Johnson
Portland, Oregon 97225