

Hello,

I strongly support a fair, balanced non-partisan redistricting that results in equal representation for all voters. How a geographic area is divided up for voting purposes should not favor any one political party. To do so is inherently biased and unfair. This seems fundamental to a democratic type of government like our.

Please support mapping of all political districts that will result in equal representation of all voters.

Marvin Higgins