

To whom it may concern:

As we redistrict, we (our family of voters) would like to request that the lines for districts be drawn in a way that is contiguous, be of equal populations, use existing geographic or political boundaries, not divide communities of common interest, and be connected by transportation links. We would also want to see that two house of repretative districts would be included in a single senatorial district.

Sincerely,

Gordon martens
Catherine Martens
Christina Martens
Hannah Martens