

The only thing that makes living in region 4 or Oregon as a whole is the current district map. The democratic proposal will keep things the way they are, the republican proposal is completely untenable. Peter DeFazio has seen to it that even our tiny community gets decent roads. The GOP would like to starve us out in the name of conservatism. Conserving what? Their money and the ability to step on the little guys, like me.