Living in Multnomah county I do not feel I am being represented due to the liberal politics of Portland. Every seat is held by democrats that push unfair politics on all the constituents without fair and balanced input. There is a growing number of conservative voters being overlooked.