

Being a registered voter in Oregon, I move for redistricting Maps B on Senate, House of Representatives and Entire State. In a bipartisan effort to include the entire state and have equal representation from the entire state, it is essential to the foundation of democracy that one or two metropolitan centers do not decide the fate of the entire state. One only needs to look at the current status of Portland to make this logical conclusion.

Kolten Kock
Oregon, Wasco County Citizen