

I would like to put forth a request for district map B. Rural areas although spread out should carry just as much of a voice. Our needs are vastly different than those of people in the cities. Both are just as important and we need each other to succeed. Representation leans too heavily toward the portland area and you are not helping the state with the heavy single party hand that has gripped this state.