

Thank you. I live in Florence Oregon and do not want to see the city broken in pieces or divided. Therefore District 9 boundries are fine with me for the legislative seat and the same holds true for the Senate seat. On the congressional map the new district plan B seems the fairest draw as it would make the seat a toss up which is always the best result instead of partisanship lines. Thanks much, Joel R Marks Florence Oregon

Joel Marks