

I live in a rural community and I stand against the redistributing that you are proposing. Our needs are very different than those in Portland. This makes no sense at all to me.
Carol Cook