

As a constituent in House District #1, I expect the composition of the district will result in a competitive voting situation over the next ten years. I oppose drawing boundary lines that guarantee a secure seat for either of the major political parties.