

Hello,

I wanted to make my voice heard on the redistricting proposals. It is unfair to redraw districts in a way that the big cities will have the run of the state. Map B is the only one that is remotely fair and will give the rural areas and area outside of the big cities a fair say. We all need to stand up for oregonians the state over and assure fair and even districting.

Thank you

Michelle Markman