

As elected officials my district , I am depending on your vigilance and participation in protecting and applying our constitutional laws concerning redistricting. The validity of our voting and representation of our community has not been fairly administered in the past .

Thank you

S. Walker