

A lot of testimony has been given on this subject so I won't repeat. This proposal is asinine and makes no sense when considering the needs of North Plains. This is why people have a mistrust of the government. We are a growing community and this proposal does not fit our needs. You need to reconsider.

Rickey Smith North Plains City