

To whom it may concern,

Please consider Map B as the primary redistricting option. The lives and livelihoods of rural Oregonians are often unduly influenced by those who do not share the same experience, and that is of advantage to no one who wants to see our state prosper.

Thank you for your consideration,
Lebanon Citizen