

I'm a voter living in what is currently Oregon's 3rd congressional district, and I wanted to voice my support for the Plan A proposal for U.S. congressional redistricting. I think this proposal does an admirable job of dividing the state's diverse communities into fair, reasonable, and equitable districts for congressional representation.