

Oregon is looking at a huge population wanting to create a new state because most feel they are not represented. Please do not redistribute by putting Portland in all the districts. It is self serving for one party to try to dominate this process. The state should look purple not blue.