

Hello,

It is my understanding our Springfield mayor believes Springfield and Eugene are not the sister cities they are. (As if he's never seen The Simpsons) Our mayor Sean VanGorden may not think so, however, as a family residing in Springfield we spend a lot of our time split between the two. We love the simplicity of Springfield with the ease of access to Eugene. We indeed are sister cities. Attempting to redistrict Springfield is absurd. Springfield and Eugene have been intertwined since the beginning. Separating the two for different representation is not the majority view of Springfield residents. It is, if you will like comparing apples to oranges. Eugene is not Portland, and Springfield is not Lincoln City. I applaud you in advanced for really looking at this.
