

Using a WSDOT design manual will show trucks will slow by 20 mph on a high bridge but only 10 mph in a shorter immersed tunnel.

An American Assoc. of State Highways (AASHTO) manual shows this 10 mph difference will make tunnel traffic four times safer than a high bridge.

