

Health insurance in Oregon

Enrollment by coverage type, all Oregonians, 2021¹

Group (employer-sponsored) coverage

- Health plan chosen by the employer and offered to employees. Employees and employers share the premium cost. Plans are sometimes also offered to spouses and dependents.

Individual

- Plans purchased by an individual directly through an insurance company or through the Oregon Health Insurance Marketplace. Financial assistance is only available for plans purchased through the Marketplace.

Medicaid (Oregon Health Plan, OHP)

- Health coverage for low-income individuals or people with a disability.

Medicare

- Federal health insurance program available to people 65 and older, people who have been on Social Security Disability for longer than 24 months, and people with end-stage renal disease.

Uninsured

- People who are not enrolled in health insurance coverage.

Veteran's/Military benefits

- People who served in the active military service and were discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable, may qualify for federal Veteran's Administration (VA) health care benefits. Reservists and National Guard members may also qualify for VA health care benefits if they were called to active duty (other than for training purposes) by a federal order and completed the full period for which they were called up.
