The whole concept of "free" health care is immoral. Even if you tax everyone at 15% it will not cover the massive increase in medical costs.
The state will have to set billing rates (very low) and the best doctors will leave the system. What would the commission members do if they were paid minimum wage for their time?

--
Steve Nelson, (541)745-5232