

I am strongly apposed to any efforts leading to universal health care in Oregon. I am livid that these discussions are not being publicized, and that our taxes are going to be raised to a level that is pure insanity. The access and quality of care will most certainly get worse than it is now. This is another unacceptable intrusion and effort to control every aspect of Oregonians lives.

Scott Rattay
Wilsonville Resident
Native Oregonian