

Hello,

I'm writing to say that I do not want universal healthcare nor the 15% increase tax that comes with it. With universal healthcare, there is no option for religious exemptions to cover only the things that are moral. With universal healthcare there is no competition to encourage better rates and care. We do not want to give everyone free healthcare and then foot the bill.

Kristen Anderson

97302