

I oppose universal healthcare. I want the freedom of choice to choose my own health care providers and for my choices to not be limited by state governance.

My personal experience with the passage of "Obamacare," the historical experiences of nations with government controlled healthcare, and the personal experiences of friends as patients and as medical personnel from some of those nations have taught me quite clearly that free enterprise works far, far better than government control.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Minden Tooze