25 communication was not successful. If the personal representative denies re-26 ceiving the electronic mail or facsimile communication, the burden of proof 27 is on the creditor to demonstrate that the electronic mail was properly ad-

7 to the last-known address of the person asserting the claim.

9 subsection (2) of this section shall be paid from the estate if the claim:

15 claim is presented and who is not an assignee of a person who received such 16 notice; and

17 (c) Would be allowable but for the time at which the claim is presented.

18 (4) A claim against an estate may be paid under subsection (3) of this 19 section only after payment of all expenses having priority over claims under 20 ORS 115.125 and payment of all previously presented claims.

21 (5) This section does not affect or prevent:

22 (a) Any proceeding to enforce a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon 23 property of the estate, or to quiet title or reform any instrument with respect 24 to title to property; or

25 (b) To the limits of the insurance protection only, any proceeding to es-26 tablish liability of the decedent or the personal representative for which the 27 decedent or personal representative is protected by liability insurance at the 28 time the proceeding is commenced.

29 SECTION 9. ORS 115.185 is amended to read:

30 115.185. A creditor whose claim has been allowed or established by sum-

8 that there is no known person to take by descent the net intestate estate, 9 the court shall order that the estate escheat to the State of Oregon and that 10 the whole of the estate, after payment of claims, taxes and expenses of ad-
11 ministration, be distributed to the State Treasurer for deposit into the Un-12 claimed Property and Estates Fund. There shall be no further proceeding in 13 the administration of the estate, and the estate shall summarily be closed.

14 SECTION 11. The amendments to statutes by sections 1 to 10 of this 15 2023 Act apply to probate proceedings commenced on or after the ef-
16 fective date of this 2023 Act.
