EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

The Oregon Liquor Control Commission (OLCC) oversees the sale of alcoholic beverages and recreational marijuana to allow access to responsible adults while protecting Oregon’s public health, safety, and community livability. Oregon operates a “control” system, which gives the state the exclusive right to sell packaged, distilled spirits through retail liquor stores operated by contracted agents.

House Bill 2112 permits the Oregon Liquor Control Commission to negotiate price with Indian tribes and commercial airlines in the sale of distilled liquor, so long as Indian tribes and commercial airlines hold full on-premises sales licenses as defined by current statute.
