

Reopening schools now counter to public safety. Do not bow to the vocal minority who are pressing you to take dangerous action. With mutations and contagion on the rise, now is not the time to bring unvaccinated children together and allow them to spread the virus to their unvaccinated parents and grandparents. There is no rationale that justifies doing so. Keep all Oregonians safe by keeping public schools closed across the state.