

COREGON MENDED BUDGET

2021-23 GOVERNOR'S RECOMMENDED BUDGET

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training

April McDonald
Department of Administrative Services
Chief Financial Office
February 1, 2021

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training 2021-23 Governor's Budget Overview

- Emerging Issues
 - Legislation, police-community relations, and redefining training
 - Unknown hiring and retirements within local agencies
 - Increasing need for facility maintenance and repairs
- Agency expenditures are mainly driven by Personal Services or employee costs. This is largely impacted by the number of public safety training classes needed.

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training Expenditure History + 2021-23 Governor's Budget

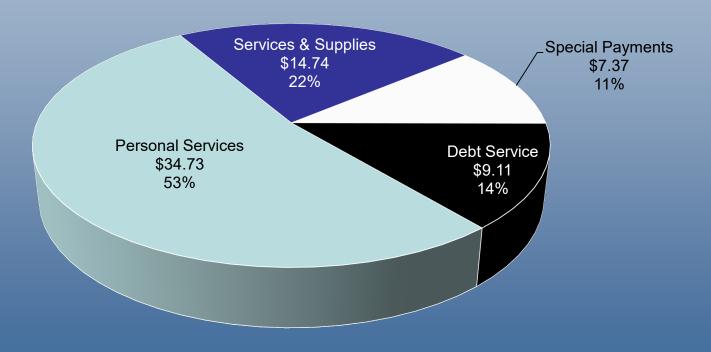

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training 2021-23 Governor's Budget

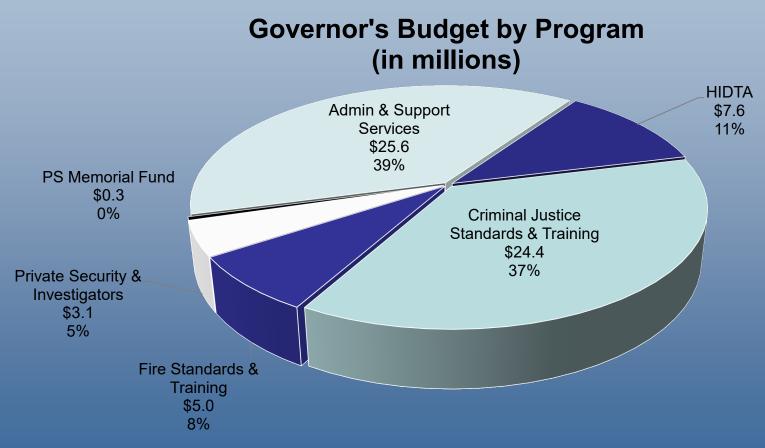

Budget by Expenditure Category (in millions)

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training 2021-23 Governor's Budget

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training Revenue Sources

- DPSST's primary revenue source is transferred from Oregon's Criminal Fines Account (CFA)
 - Supports criminal justice training; certification and records management; and agency administration.
- Revenues from the Fire Insurance Premium Tax are dedicated to fire training and certification
- The 9-1-1 tax and fees charged to private security officers and private investigators are dedicated to the related programs

Department of Public Safety Standards & Training 2021-23 Governor's Budget/Revisions

Investments:

- Instructor development including implicit bias, emotional intelligence, use of force and other topics
- Further implementation of the Statistical Transparency of Policing (STOP) Program

Reductions:

- Three Basic Police training classes and two Basic Corrections training classes, equating to eight positions (8.00 FTE) and $3.2 million in CFA funding
- Inflation on select Services and Supplies and increased Vacancy Savings adjustment

QUESTIONS?

