

SENATE BILL 126

Adjusts the South Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve management area to include lands already owned and managed by the state, to become eligible for additional federal funding and reduce Common School Fund expenditures

