

I live in Ashland, congressional district 2. I have little knowledge of the districts of Oregon and how well they meet our needs. I do know that whoever ends up drawing the new redistricted map, I want the result to be as neutral as possible, not favoring any party, ethnic, economic nor other group(s). Let's do away with the practice of gerrymandering and level the field for all candidates and parties.