BACKGROUND:

The Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) is statutorily required to maintain accreditation of the state's insurance regulatory program by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). ORS 731.574. The model laws developed by NAIC are an important part of the national system of state-based insurance regulations. Model laws adopted by individual states is beneficial to both insurance carriers and consumers. House Bill 2045 codifies NAIC's model law regarding credit for reinsurance. The measure also provides authority for DCBS and the Department of Revenue to exchange tax returns and other information necessary for the Department to carry out statutory provisions regarding retaliatory taxes.
