

I am absolutely in favor of redistricting. The rural Counties often have no voice, not because they aren't as loud as the urban areas, but because they don't have anyone speaking for them who knows the issues that they face. They quickly get overshadowed and ignored. We need people who will represent us appropriately and speak for us.

Thank you,

April Burbank
Columbia county