

It would be best for the people, all people, in the state of Oregon to support and prioritize the plan of using an independent citizens' advisory commission to provide a transparent and equitable redistricting process.

Kimberly Mander
Bend, Oregon