Senate Committee On Judiciary and Ballot Measure 110
Implementation

Prepared By: Channa Newell, Counsel

Meeting Dates: 3/31, 4/6

WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Requires labor negotiates to be conducted in open meetings and requires public notice of such meetings.
Requires that notice of executive session include time and place of meeting.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

Current law allows labor negotiations to be held in executive session if both sides so request. If labor negotiations are held in executive session, public notice of that session is not required.

Senate Bill 666 requires labor negotiations to be conducted in open meetings and requires notice of labor negotiations held in executive session to be subject to public notice requirements. Notice of executive sessions must include information on the time and place for holding the meeting.
