Prepared by: Cameron D. Miles
Date: 1/19/2021

SUMMARY

Requires that providers of educational services to students of public charter school be employed by public charter school or by sponsor of public charter school. Makes exceptions for other public providers of educational services and for special education and related services.

Directs sponsor to make good faith evaluation of whether public charter school provides educational services in manner that sponsor is unable or unwilling to provide. Requires sponsor to make report publicly available if evaluation determines that sponsor is unable or unwilling to provide educational services in same manner.
