SUMMARY

Requires public body employer to establish and implement process by which employees may request employer to use unique identifier in lieu of employee's name in records contained by employer for purposes of public records requests.

Exempts from public disclosure names, together with home address and telephone number, of public employees and members of labor organization whenever employee has been assigned unique identifier.

OPEN GOVERNMENT IMPACT

Legislative Counsel has not adopted standards for drafting measures that establish exemptions from disclosure of public records.

This measure exempts from public disclosure the name, home address and telephone number of an employee of a public body upon request by the employee.

If these public records were instead subject to mandatory disclosure under public records law, the public could receive additional personally identifiable information of employees of public bodies.
