Provides that publisher conditioning removal of image upon payment of fee by person acquitted, not prosecuted, or who has had their conviction set aside, vacated, or pardoned, can be prosecuted for theft by deception under ORS 164.085. Defines terms.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Efforts of interim work group
- Harm caused by publication of booking photos
- Process of taking booking photos

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

Adds additional entities to whom booking photos can be released prior to conviction.

BACKGROUND:

When a person is arrested, photos are usually taken of them as they are booked into jail. Subsequently, these photos are often released to the public and published in the media or online. Some websites specialize in publishing booking photos and charge money to have the images removed, even if the photo was of a person who was acquitted or not charged.

House Bill 3273 A prohibits law enforcement agencies from releasing booking photos except under certain circumstances and sets requirements for the destruction of a booking photo image by a publish-for-pay publication upon request.
