Whereas Turkey heavily restricts and censors the Internet, and the government has blocked more than 200,000 websites and social media platforms, including Twitter, YouTube and Wikipedia; and

Whereas Turkey has pressured Netflix and other online streaming platforms to censor content according to rules set by the Radio and Television Supreme Council; and

Whereas Turkey ranks among the countries with the highest number of content removal requests sent to Twitter and Facebook, according to the companies' transparency reports; and

Whereas human rights violations have been a defining aspect of President Recep Tayyip Erdogan's authoritarian rule; and
