costs of administering ORS 674.200 to 674.250 and 674.995; and “(h) Any other information required by the board by rule.

“(3) The board may not issue a registration to a business entity as an appraisal management company unless:

“(a) Each individual who owns 10 percent or more of the entity and the controlling person identified by the entity in the application have completed a criminal records check; [and]

“(b) The board finds that no owner, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, of the entity or the controlling person identified in the application has had an appraiser license or certificate refused, denied, canceled, surrendered in lieu of revocation or revoked in any state or territory or possession of the United States, for a substantive cause, as determined by the Appraisal Subcommittee; and “[(b) (c) The board determines that each individual who owns more than 10 percent [or more] of the entity and the controlling person identified by the entity in the application are of good moral character.][]{:}

“(A) Are of good moral character; and]

“(B) Have never had a license, certification or registration to act as an appraiser or appraisal management company refused, denied, canceled or revoked in this state or in any other state.]

“(4)(a) The board shall issue a unique registration number to each appraisal management company registered under this section.

“(b) The board shall maintain a published list of appraisal management companies registered under this section.

“(c) An appraisal management company registered under this section shall disclose the company’s registration number to each appraiser used by the company.

“(5) An appraisal management company registration expires two years after the date of the issuance of the registration. The board shall adopt rules establishing the requirements for renewal or reactivation of a registration. The rules must require that an appraisal management company provide all of the information and certifications required for an initial application for registration under subsection (2) of this section in the renewal application.”.

On page 7, delete lines 12 and 13 and insert:

“SECTION 8. This 2021 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2021 Act takes effect on its passage.”.
