Senate Bill 185

Printed pursuant to Senate Interim Rule 213.28 by order of the President of the Senate in conformance with pre-session filing rules, indicating neither advocacy nor opposition on the part of the President (at the request of Senate Interim Committee on Judiciary for Oregon State Bar Nonprofit Organizations Section)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor’s brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Permits nonprofit corporation organized under laws of other jurisdiction to become nonprofit corporation organized under laws of this state. Specifies procedures for domestication of foreign nonprofit corporation.

Specifies circumstances under which members of nonprofit corporation and board of directors of nonprofit corporation may discuss issues or take action by electronic means without meeting.

Specifies circumstances under which majority of directors may approve dissolution if number of directors in office at time at which directors consider dissolution is less than required by laws of this state or by articles of incorporation or bylaws of nonprofit corporation.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to the governance of nonprofit corporations; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 65.001, 65.038, 65.144, 65.212, 65.354, 65.387, 65.624 and 65.637.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Sections 2 to 4 of this 2021 Act are added to and made a part of ORS chapter 65.

SECTION 2. (1) A nonprofit corporation organized under this chapter may become a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of another jurisdiction if the laws of the other jurisdiction permit the nonprofit corporation to do so and the nonprofit corporation:

(a) Complies with the requirements set forth in the laws of the other jurisdiction;

(b) Approves a plan to organize under the laws of the other jurisdiction; and

(c) Files the plan to organize under the laws of the other jurisdiction with the Secretary of State, along with a notification as to whether the nonprofit corporation intends to continue to transact business in this state.

(2) A nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of another jurisdiction may become a nonprofit corporation organized under this chapter if the laws of the other jurisdiction permit the nonprofit corporation to do so and the nonprofit corporation:

(a) Complies with the laws of the other jurisdiction that apply to domestications outside the other jurisdiction;

(b) Approves a plan of domestication;

(c) Files with the Secretary of State articles of domestication; and

(d) Applies in accordance with ORS 65.707 for authority to transact business in this state, unless the nonprofit corporation does not intend to transact business in this state.

(3)(a) Articles of domestication must set forth:

(A) The name of the nonprofit corporation before domestication;

(B) The name of the nonprofit corporation after domestication;

(C) All proposed amendments to the nonprofit corporation’s articles of organization and

(D) A statement of the manner in which and the basis on which the nonprofit corporation, after domestication, will cancel or reclassify memberships of the nonprofit corporation into memberships, obligations, rights to acquire membership, cash, property or any combination of memberships, obligations, rights to acquire membership, cash or property.

(b)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, articles of domestication may also provide that the nonprofit corporation may amend the articles before filing with the Secretary of State.

(B) After the nonprofit corporation approves the articles of domestication, the nonprofit corporation may not amend the articles of incorporation without the approval of the members if the amendment would change:

(i) The amount or kind of memberships, obligations, rights to acquire memberships, cash or property that members would receive under the articles of domestication;

(ii) The nonprofit corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws other than as proposed under paragraph (a)(C) of this subsection; or

(iii) Any other of the terms and conditions of the articles of domestication that would adversely affect the members in any material respect.

(c) In addition to the provisions described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, the articles of domestication may set forth other provisions related to the domestication.

(4) A nonprofit corporation shall approve articles of domestication in the manner provided for approving mergers under ORS 65.487.

SECTION 3. A public benefit corporation or religious corporation organized under this chapter must notify the Attorney General in writing at least 30 days before the public benefit corporation or religious corporation files articles of domestication in another jurisdiction unless the Attorney General waives this requirement in writing. The notice must include the public benefit corporation’s or religious corporation’s plan of domestication, must describe any restricted assets the public benefit corporation or religious corporation holds and any activities the public benefit corporation or religious corporation expects to continue in this state.

SECTION 4. (1) After the members approve a plan of domestication, the nonprofit corporation shall file with the Secretary of State:

(a) The approved plan of domestication; or

(b) In lieu of the plan of domestication, a written declaration that:

(A) Identifies an address for an office of the domesticated entity where the plan of domestication is on file; and

(B) States that the nonprofit corporation will provide any member with a copy of the plan of domestication upon request and at no cost.

(2) The domestication takes effect at the date and time determined in accordance with ORS 60.011.

SECTION 5. Section 6 of this 2021 Act is added to and made a part of ORS 65.337 to 65.351.

SECTION 6. (1) Unless a corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the corporation’s board of directors may, without a meeting, use electronic mail or other electronic means to take action that this chapter otherwise requires or permits the board of directors to take at a board of directors’ meeting if the corporation complies with this section.
(2)(a) Before taking an action under subsection (1) of this section, a corporation shall send to the electronic mail address that each director provided to the corporation for receiving communications from the corporation an electronic mail announcement that states that the board of directors will take the action.

(b) The electronic mail announcement the corporation sends under paragraph (a) of this subsection must include a description of the matter on which the board of directors will take action. The electronic mail announcement must specify a deadline of not less than 48 hours after the time the corporation sends the announcement in which a director may record the director's vote.

(c) The corporation shall include the electronic mail announcement described in this subsection and a record of the directors' votes in the minutes for the directors' meeting or shall file the announcement and record of the directors' votes in documents that reflect the action that the board took.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a corporation's board of directors may not use electronic mail or other electronic means to take action if the corporation does not have a record of an electronic mail address for a director.

(4) A director may change the director's vote at any time before the deadline set forth in the electronic mail announcement described in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) An affirmative vote of the majority of the directors who hold office at the time the board of directors takes an action by means of electronic mail or by other electronic means is an act of the board, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws require an affirmative vote of a greater number of directors. The board's action under this subsection has the effect of a meeting vote and the corporation may describe the action as a meeting vote in any document.

(6) The board of directors' action under subsection (5) of this section is effective on the deadline specified in the electronic mail announcement described in subsection (2) of this section, unless the announcement specifies a different effective date or time.

(7) The board of directors may, without complying with all of the requirements of this section, use electronic mail to discuss, but not take action on, an issue that comes before the board.

SECTION 7. ORS 65.001 is amended to read:

65.001. As used in this chapter:

(1)(a) “Anniversary” means, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the day each year that is exactly one or more years after the date on which the Secretary of State files:

(A) The articles of incorporation for a domestic corporation; or

(B) An application for authority to transact business for a foreign corporation.

(b) “Anniversary” means February 28 if an event occurs that would otherwise cause an anniversary to fall on February 29.

“Written” means embodied as a document.

SECTION 8, ORS 65.038 is amended to read:
65.038. (1)(a) If a corporation asserts that calling or conducting a meeting of the corporation’s members, delegates or directors or otherwise obtaining consent from the members, delegates or directors in accordance with the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws or in accordance with this chapter is impractical or impossible, or if the corporation cannot identify the corporation’s members or directors, a director, an officer, a delegate, a member or the Attorney General may petition for an order to call or conduct a meeting or an order to identify the corporation’s members or directors. The director, officer, delegate, member or the Attorney General may petition for an order to call or conduct a meeting or an order to identify the corporation’s members or directors. The director, officer, delegate, member or the Attorney General shall submit the petition to the circuit court for the county in this state that the corporation’s last filed annual report, the articles of incorporation or an application for authority to transact business in this state identifies as the location of the corporation’s principal office. If the annual report, the articles of incorporation or the application does not identify the county in which the principal office is located, the director, officer, delegate, member or the Attorney General may petition for an order from the circuit court of Marion County or Multnomah County.

(b) In an order under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may:
(A) Direct the corporation to call a meeting and provide a written ballot or other form of obtaining the vote of members, delegates or directors in any manner that the court finds is fair and equitable under the circumstances; or
(B) Determine who the members or directors of the corporation are or amend the articles of incorporation to state that the corporation does not have members.

(2) The court shall, in an order issued under this section, provide for a method of notice reasonably designed to give actual notice to all persons who would be entitled to notice of a meeting held pursuant to the articles of incorporation, bylaws and this chapter, whether or not the method results in actual notice to all such persons or conforms to the notice requirements that would otherwise apply.
(3) An order that a court issues in accordance with this section may for good cause shown dispense with any requirement to hold a meeting or to obtain votes, including any requirement that the articles of incorporation, bylaws or this chapter might otherwise impose as to quorum or as to the number or percentage of votes needed to approve an act.

(4) Whenever practical, a court in any order issued under this section shall limit the subject matter of meetings or other forms of consent judicially authorized to those items, including amendments to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the resolution of which will or may enable the corporation to continue managing the corporation's affairs without further resort to this section.
 An order issued under this section may also authorize the obtaining of whatever votes and approvals are necessary for [the] a dissolution, merger, domestication or sale of assets.

(5) Any meeting or other method of obtaining the vote of members, delegates or directors conducted pursuant to an order issued under this section, and which complies with all the provisions of the order, is for all purposes a valid meeting or vote, as the case may be, and has the same force and effect as if the meeting or method of obtaining the vote complied with every requirement imposed by the articles of incorporation, bylaws and this chapter.

SECTION 9. ORS 65.144 is amended to read:

65.144. (1) Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, members of the corporation have the same rights and obligations. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish classes of membership with different rights or obligations. Rights that members have, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, include rights to:
 (a) Elect directors, as provided in ORS 65.311;
 (b) Remove directors, as provided in ORS 65.324;
 (c) Vote on any change to the number of directors, including a change to a fixed number of directors, a change to a variable range in the number of possible directors or a change from a fixed number of directors to a variable range in the number of possible directors, as provided in ORS 65.307;
 (d) Vote to sell, transfer, lease, exchange, option, convey or otherwise dispose of the corporation's assets or to merge the corporation's assets with the assets of another entity, as provided in ORS 65.803;
 (e) Vote to dissolve the corporation, as provided in ORS 65.624; [and]
 (f) Approve a plan of domestication; and (f)(g) Approve a conflict of interest transaction, as provided in ORS 65.361, if the member is a voting member of a mutual benefit corporation.

(2) Notwithstanding a provision in a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, a member has a right to:
 (a) Vote on an action or an amendment to the articles of incorporation if the action or amendment would reduce or eliminate the member's right to vote; and
 (b) Inspect and copy the corporation's records, as provided in ORS 65.774.

SECTION 10. ORS 65.212 is amended to read:

65.212. (1) Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise,[a]
 [a][a] the corporation's [board of directors] members may, without a meeting, use electronic mail or other electronic means to take action that this chapter otherwise requires or permits the [board of directors] members to take at a [board of directors'] meeting if the corporation complies with this section.

(b) The board of directors may, without complying with all of the requirements of this section, use
(2)(a) Before taking an action under subsection (1) of this section, a corporation shall send to the electronic mail address that each [director] member provided to the corporation for receiving communications from the corporation an electronic mail announcement that states that the [board of directors] members will take the action.

(b) The electronic mail announcement the corporation sends under paragraph (a) of this subsection must include a description of the matter on which the [board of directors] members will take action. The electronic mail announcement must specify a deadline of not less than 48 hours after the time the corporation sends the announcement in which a [director] member may record the [director's] member's vote.

(c) The corporation shall include the electronic mail announcement described in this subsection and a record of the [directors'] members' votes in the minutes for the [directors'] meeting or shall file the announcement and record of the [directors'] members' votes in documents that reflect the action that the [board] members took.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a corporation's [board of directors] members may not use electronic mail or other electronic means to take action if the corporation does not have a record of an electronic mail address for a [director] member.

(4) A [director] member may change the [director's] member's vote at any time before the deadline set forth in the electronic mail announcement described in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) An affirmative vote of the majority of the [directors who hold office] members at the time the [board of directors takes] members take an action by means of electronic mail or by other electronic means is an act of the [board] members, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws require an affirmative vote of a greater number of [directors] members. The [board's] members' action under this subsection has the effect of a meeting vote and the corporation may describe the action as a meeting vote in any document.

(6) The [board of directors'] members' action under subsection (5) of this section is effective on the deadline specified in the electronic mail announcement described in subsection (2) of this section, unless the announcement specifies a different effective date or time.

(7) Unless a record date for determining members who may take an action without a meeting under this section is set in accordance with ORS 65.207 or 65.221, the record date is the date of the electronic mail announcement described in subsection (2)(a) of this section.

(8) Members may use electronic mail to discuss an issue that comes before the members.

SECTION 11. ORS 65.354 is amended to read:

65.354. (1)(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one or more committees that exercise the authority of the board. The board may appoint directors to serve on a committee or designate the method of selecting committee members. Each committee must consist of two or more directors, who serve at the pleasure of the board. Only a director may serve as a voting member of a committee.

(b) The creation of a committee and appointment of directors to the committee or designation of a method of selecting committee members under this subsection must be approved by the greater of:

(A) A majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or
(B) The number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under ORS 65.351.

(2)(a) The board of directors may create committees to advise the board or otherwise serve the corporation. The board may appoint individuals to serve on a committee or specify a method for selecting committee members. A member of a committee the board creates under this subsection may be, but need not be, a director or a member of the corporation.

(b) A committee the board creates under this subsection may not exercise the authority of the board of directors.

(3) ORS 65.337 to 65.351, governing meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board of directors, also apply to committees and committee members.

(4) Except as provided in subsections (2)(b) and (5) of this section, to the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, each committee of the board may exercise the authority of the board of directors.

(5) A committee the board creates under this section may not:

(a) Authorize distributions;

(b) Approve or recommend to members dissolution, merger, domestication or the sale, pledge or transfer of all or substantially all of the corporation’s assets;

(c) Elect, appoint or remove directors or fill vacancies on the board or on any of the board’s committees; or

(d) Adopt, amend or repeal the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(6) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in ORS 65.357.

SECTION 12. ORS 65.387 is amended to read:

65.387. As used in ORS 65.387 to 65.414:

(1) “Corporation” includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger, domestication or other transaction in which the predecessor’s existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) “Director” means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or an individual who, while a director of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation’s request if the director’s duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the director to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. “Director” includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) “Expenses” include attorney fees.

(4) “Liability” means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or reasonable expenses actually incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(5) “Officer” means an individual who is or was an officer of a corporation or an individual who, while an officer of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation’s request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise. An officer is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation’s request if the officer’s duties to the corporation also impose duties on or include services by the officer to the employee benefit plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. “Officer” includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of an officer.
“Party” includes an individual who was, is or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(7) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal.

SECTION 13. ORS 65.624 is amended to read:

65.624. (1) Unless a corporation’s articles of incorporation, bylaws or the board of directors or members, acting in accordance with subsection (3) of this section, require a greater vote or voting by class, dissolution is authorized if the dissolution is approved:

(a) By the board of directors;

(b) By the members of a mutual benefit corporation entitled to vote on dissolution, if any, by at least two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less, or by a majority of the votes cast, if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation; and

(c) In writing, by any person or persons whose approval is required for an amendment of the articles of incorporation or bylaws, as authorized by ORS 65.467, or for dissolution.

(2)(a) If the corporation does not have members entitled to vote on dissolution, the board of directors must approve the dissolution and may do so even if the board does not have a quorum. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice of any meeting of the board of directors at which such approval is to be considered in accordance with ORS 65.344 (2). The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolution of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(b) Even if the number of directors in office at the time the board considers the proposed dissolution is less than the minimum required under this chapter, under the articles of incorporation or under the corporation’s bylaws, a majority of the directors in office at the time the board considers the proposed dissolution may approve the dissolution.

(3) The board of directors may condition the board’s submission of the proposed dissolution to a vote of members, and the members may condition the members’ approval of the dissolution on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board of directors seeks to have dissolution approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give all members, whether or not entitled to vote, notice of the proposed meeting in accordance with ORS 65.214. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(5) If the board of directors seeks to have dissolution approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(6) The plan of dissolution must indicate to whom the assets owned or held by the corporation will be distributed after all creditors have been paid.

SECTION 14. ORS 65.637 is amended to read:

65.637. (1) A dissolved corporation continues the corporation’s corporate existence but may not carry on any activities except activities that are appropriate to wind up and liquidate the corporation’s affairs, including:

(a) Preserving and protecting the corporation’s assets and minimizing the corporation’s liabilities;

(b) Discharging or providing for discharging the corporation’s liabilities and obligations;
(c) Disposing of the corporation’s properties that will not be distributed in kind;
(d) Returning, transferring or conveying assets in accordance with a condition under which the corporation holds the assets subject to a requirement to return, transfer or convey the assets, if the condition occurs by reason of the dissolution;
(e) Transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirements, the corporation’s assets as provided in or authorized by the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws;
(f) If the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation, and the corporation has not provided in the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws for distributing assets on dissolution, transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirement, the corporation’s assets to one or more persons described in ORS 65.001 [(38)(b)] (40)(b); (g) If the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation and the corporation has not provided in the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws for distributing assets on dissolution, transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirements, the corporation’s assets to the corporation’s members or, if the corporation has no members, to those persons whom the corporation purports to benefit or serve;
(h) Adopting a plan of merger; and
(i) Doing other acts necessary to liquidate the corporation’s assets and wind up the corporation’s affairs.

(2) Dissolution of a corporation does not:
(a) Transfer title to the corporation’s property;
(b) Subject the corporation’s directors or officers to standards of conduct different from the standards prescribed in ORS 65.301 to 65.414;
(c) Change quorum or voting requirements for the corporation’s board of directors or members, change provisions for selection, resignation or removal of the corporation’s directors or officers, or both, or change provisions for amending the corporation’s bylaws;
(d) Prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in the corporation’s corporate name;
(e) Abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution; or
(f) Terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.
