Senate Bill 473

Sponsored by Senator TAYLOR, Representative POWER (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Directs Department of Revenue to identify and notify annually personal income taxpayers that are likely eligible for employment-related child care services administered by Department of Human Services.

Takes effect on 91st day following adjournment sine die.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to persons eligible for employment-related child care; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2021 Act is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 305.

SECTION 2. (1) Not later than December 15 of each year, the Department of Revenue, after consultation with the Department of Human Services and with the Early Learning Division, shall identify all personal income taxpayers that, during the immediately preceding calendar year, appeared likely to be eligible to use employment-related child care services administered by the Department of Human Services.

(2) Not later than January 31 of the immediately following year, the Department of Revenue shall notify any taxpayer identified in subsection (1) of this section of the taxpayer's potential eligibility for employment-related child care.

(3) The notification required under this section shall be:

(a) Accompanied by information about how to access employment-related child care.

(b) Sent by mail to the taxpayer's last known address.

SECTION 3. This 2021 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the date on which the 2021 regular session of the Eighty-first Legislative Assembly adjourns sine die.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
