A BILL FOR AN ACT

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. As used in sections 1 to 5 of this 2021 Act:

(1) “Approved doctoral program in psychology” means an approved doctoral program in psychology, as defined in ORS 675.010, at an educational institution located in this state.

(2) “Licensed psychologist” has the meaning given that term in ORS 675.010.

(3) “Public employer” has the meaning given that term in ORS 408.225.

SECTION 2. (1) There is created within the Oregon Health Authority a psychology provider incentive program for the purpose of providing housing support and loan repayment subsidies to students enrolled in approved doctoral programs in psychology and licensed psychologists in this state.

(2) The psychology provider incentive program shall provide:

(a) Stipends for housing costs to a student enrolled in an approved doctoral program in psychology who successfully completes at least four courses during the doctoral program that provide cultural competency training.

(b) Loan repayment subsidies for a licensed psychologist who, as a student enrolled in an approved doctoral program in psychology, completed the courses described in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(3) An individual who as a student received a stipend described in subsection (2)(a) of this section may as a licensed psychologist receive the loan repayment subsidies described in subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(4) The authority may receive gifts, grants or contributions from any source, whether public or private, to carry out the provisions of this section. Moneys received under this subsection shall be deposited in the Psychology Provider Incentive Fund established under section 5 of this 2021 Act.

(5) The authority may partner with the Higher Education Coordinating Commission to carry out subsection (2)(a) of this section.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

LC 2358
(6) The authority and the commission may adopt rules to carry out this section.

SECTION 3. (1) The Department of Public Safety Standards and Training shall provide guaranteed full-time employment in a position within the department to a licensed psychologist who:

(a) Applies to the department for a vacant position;

(b) As a student enrolled in an approved doctoral program in psychology, completed the courses described in section 2 of this 2021 Act; and

(c) Is otherwise qualified for the position.

(2) The department shall enter into a contract with the licensed psychologist described in subsection (1) of this section that includes a provision stipulating that the period of employment with the department must be for at least six consecutive months and not longer than 12 consecutive months.

(3) The department may adopt rules to carry out this section.

SECTION 4. (1) A public employer shall grant a preference to a licensed psychologist who, as a student enrolled in an approved doctoral program in psychology, completed the courses described in section 2 of this 2021 Act and applies for a vacant civil service position or seeks promotion to a civil service position with a higher maximum salary rate and who:

(a) Successfully completes an initial application screening or an application examination for the position; and

(b) Meets the minimum qualifications and any special qualifications for the position.

(2) The public employer shall grant the preference to a licensed psychologist described in subsection (1) of this section as follows:

(a) For an initial application screening used to develop a list of persons for interviews, the public employer shall add five preference points to the licensed psychologist's score.

(b) For an application examination given after the initial application screening that results in a score, the public employer shall add preference points to the total combined examination score without allocating the points to any single feature or part of the examination. The public employer shall add five preference points to the licensed psychologist's score.

(c) For an application examination that consists of an interview, an evaluation of the licensed psychologist's performance, experience or training, a supervisor's rating or any other method of ranking an applicant that does not result in a score, the public employer shall give preference to the licensed psychologist. A public employer that uses an application examination described in this paragraph shall devise and apply methods by which the public employer gives special consideration in the public employer's hiring decisions to the licensed psychologist.

(3) The preferences described in subsection (2) of this section are not a requirement that the public employer appoint a licensed psychologist described in subsection (1) of this section to a civil service position.

(4) A public employer shall appoint an otherwise qualified licensed psychologist described in subsection (1) of this section to a vacant civil service position if the results of the licensed psychologist's application examination, when combined with the preference, are equal to or higher than the results of an application examination for an applicant who is not a licensed psychologist described in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) If a public employer does not appoint a licensed psychologist described in subsection
(1) of this section to a vacant civil service position, the public employer shall provide in writing at the written request of the licensed psychologist the public employer's reasons for the decision not to appoint the licensed psychologist. The public employer may base a decision not to appoint the licensed psychologist solely on the licensed psychologist's merits or qualifications with respect to the vacant civil service position.

(6) A violation of this section is an unlawful employment practice.

(7) A licensed psychologist described in subsection (1) of this section claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may file a verified written complaint with the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries in accordance with ORS 659A.820.

SECTION 5. The Psychology Provider Incentive Fund is established in the State Treasury, separate and distinct from the General Fund. Interest earned by the Psychology Provider Incentive Fund shall be credited to the fund. The fund consists of moneys appropriated to the fund by the Legislative Assembly and gifts, grants or other moneys contributed to the fund by any source, whether public or private. Moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the Oregon Health Authority to carry out section 2 of this 2021 Act.

SECTION 6. (1) Sections 1 to 5 of this 2021 Act become operative on January 1, 2022.

(2) The Department of Public Safety Standards and Training, the Higher Education Coordinating Commission and the Oregon Health Authority may take any action before the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section that is necessary to enable the department, the commission or the authority to exercise, on and after the operative date specified in subsection (1) of this section, all of the duties, functions and powers conferred on the department, the commission and the authority by sections 1 to 5 of this 2021 Act.

SECTION 7. This 2021 Act takes effect on the 91st day after the date on which the 2021 regular session of the Eighty-first Legislative Assembly adjourns sine die.
