

I find this bill and its amendments appalling. I see this as nothing more than additional taxes on the working class that are not needed now or in the future.