

- I'll never get rear ended at the stop light again
- I'll save time
- My bike won't overheat while stuck in traffic
- More people will see how efficient motorcycles can be and therefore start riding.
- It's common practice all over the world and reduces congestion