

I support lane filtering. Manly for the riders safety. People don't pay enough attention and are to busy texting or yelling at their kids... Stopped traffic is a scary thing on a motorcycle because you never know who is not paying attention and could run you over.