

Lane sharing is safer for motorcyclists, it's been proven in multiple international studies. This law would put moto riders out of the squash zone between cars, what's not to support?