

Access to the meetings of local government bodies is especially important - they make decisions of great importance to everyday life and to our long-term future, and too often very few members of the public can be there. Please support the bill.