

As a longtime motorcyclist in California, where lane splitting is legal, I fully support this measure. I have been rear ended twice while sitting in a line of cars NOT lane splitting. While lanesplitting and filtering, I have not been rear ended, nor side swiped or otherwise. Drivers are fully used to the situation, as they will quickly become in Oregon. It makes people better drivers, more situationally aware, look for others including pedestrians.