

I oppose this bill. Oregon doesn't need more taxes especially at a time like this. My husband works in the tire industry. The tariff taxes have already been a blow. Why add insult to injury?
The other taxes effect everyone in our rural community. When they hurt we hurt.
We are "green" enough. Maybe try focusing on the countries that aren't green enough and how we can get them to contribute?