

We are two older property owners who rely on the rental income to support us. Even applying for the Landlord Compensation Fund only partially helps. We still are out the difference. We have other expenses such as insurance, property taxes, water and garbage, repairs and maintenance that need to be paid. It has hurt us significantly, and we are trying to sell our property since we cannot continue to afford being a landlord. Who will help us?