

I'm aghast at seeing this proposed legislation. Reparations are paid to people/countries who have suffered actual damages. There is not one former slave alive today to pay reparations to, so the issue is moot. Making the sons pay for the sins of the father was one of the reasons this country was founded, and that is exactly what this proposed legislation does. To use my tax dollars to pay someone for something they never suffered is stupid and frivolous.